

TRUTH Content Advisory

In this theatrical production, the story takes place on a plantation in Virginia during the institution of slavery. Some of the characters are enslaved. There are references to physical abuse and violence. There is an abstract depiction of a whipping, and stage combat is used to depict a beating. At the end of the story, there is a theatrical depiction of gun violence resulting in loss of life. There are two prop (fake) revolvers on stage and a gunshot sound is heard. There is also reference to the plantation owner fathering a child by one of the enslaved characters, as well as another instance of concern over the possibility of sexual abuse.
